At last, the end of this frightful war has come. We prophesied many times about the termination of hostilities in the early days, but gave it up. Who would have thought four months ago that we should be able to celebrate a victorious end before Christmas. It is a glorious ending, and we most earnestly hope that the results will, in time, approach what they cost to produce. When we think of the millions of the best of mankind who have been offered up, and of the wicked waste of wealth, and of the time devoted by the rest of the world to bringing about these results, the world ought to be an infinitely better place to live in than ever before. We feel that it will be. Although we have all suffered, and some most acutely, we would not, we could not, wish that we had not helped.

The School is looking forward to seeing again those heroes who have been spared. We hope to have that reunion, and will gather together to celebrate their return; but when the roll is called, we shall stand bareheaded and honour those who nobly gave their lives in the great cause of right.

The School has lost heavily, both in Masters and Old Boys. A great number has been wounded. Altogether, the School is proud of the "little bit" it has done through the O.B.'s and O.M.'s.

We shall, at the proper time, endeavour to erect some suitable memorial to those noble fellows, whose names shall live forever in the history of this School.

The School offers a warm welcome to Mr. Ransom, who takes the French of the Upper Forms and is Fourth Form Master.

Mr. Ransom has already entered into the activities of the School. He is the director and moving force of the Dramatic Club, which hopes to give concerts and plays on Saturday evenings.

We are very sorry to lose the services of Sergt. Matheson, who has been taken on the Siberian Draft. Sergt. Matheson was chiefly instrumental in the success of the Cadet Corps last year. He brought it up to a high state of efficiency, which is shown by our Corps' coming out first in British Columbia, and the holders of the Cup presented by the I.O.D.E.

It is pleasing to note that the Boys have subscribed for a small token, which will be presented to the Sergeant before he leaves for the Far East.

Congratulations to B. B. Pelly on the success of the Corps. No O.C. ever worked harder. We hope he will be able to come over for the Presentation of the Cup.

T. M. Pelly has succeeded his brother as O.C. for this year. He promises to be as great a success as B. B.

Congratulations to Pelly, Heggie ii, Alexander, Burdick, Mathews ii and Loughheed, who have been appointed Prefects. We feel confident that they will strive their utmost for the honour and good of the School.

Owing to the horrible Influenza epidemic, it was found impossible to play outside teams at Hockey this year.

Heggie ii and his Hornets are to be congratulated on winning the Mrs. Barnacle Hockey Cup.

Congratulations to Heggie i, who is our new 1st XV. Captain. We look to him to maintain the high standard of our XV.

We are pleased to see a great interest in Boxing this year. Mr. Davies has a class of over thirty. We hope to have a good tournament in November.

SPEECH DAY AND PRIZE DISTRIBUTION

The School assembled on Wednesday, July 10th, to hear the results of the Midsummer Examinations and to receive the Prizes.

The Headmaster gave his Annual Report.

The Warden then addressed the Boys.

The Prizes were presented by the Warden, and the proceedings closed with the School Song and the National Anthem.

CRICKET CHARACTERS

Shore (Captain)—Used good judgment as a Captain, and possesses a good knowledge of the game. Has lots of strokes; defence still weak. His bowling was always effective when he had his length, but his length was not always there. An excellent catch. He has the honour of captaining two winning teams of the Gillespie Cup Competition.

Lennie i—Has good defence and played some good innings. Has the makings of a very good bat. A good field and keen.

Lennie ii—A good wicket-keeper, but should bestir himself after the ball when it is near the wickets. He played many good innings. Is good on the "off" and has a good defence. Had the best batting average for 1918.

Heggie i—A really good bowler; good length and pace. A good punishing bat, but must acquire better defence. A good field.

Lougheed—A very useful bowler; comes across naturally; should be most useful next year. A punishing bat when set; must acquire more defence. A good field.

Wenman i—A really good bat; has lots of strokes; also bowls well and was effective on more than one occasion when others had failed. An excellent field. Should be most useful next year.

Pelly i—Defence much improved; was a useful bat. Has not learnt many strokes yet. A fine outfield.

Pelly ii—Developed very well. A most useful member of the team. Has good defence. Must learn to “cut” and put them away on the “leg” side. A hard worker in the field.

Reid i—Made progress as a bat; defence improved. Is getting some strokes. Should be a useful bowler.

Watson—Has good defence. Went in first, where his patient defence was most helpful. Acquired some strokes. A fair wicket-keep.

Heggie ii—Made good progress as a bat. Is too keen to make runs. Can hit. Promises as a wicket-keeper.

Burdick—Has a good eye and is a very punishing bat, but his defence is too weak. With more patience, should prove a most useful member of the team. Is keen on the field.

WINNERS OF THE JUNIOR LEAGUE AND HOLDERS OF THE GILLESPIE CUP

We congratulate the 1918 Team on their success.

We still hold the Gillespie Cup, which has not yet had any home but at the School.

The Teams that follow have a great responsibility.

HOCKEY

Officers for 1918:

Captain 1st XI.....	G. R. Heggie
Vice-Captain 1st XI.....	B. B. Alexander
Hon. Secretary.....	W. G. Heggie

Colours' Committee:

Mr. Barnacle, G. R. Heggie and B. B. Alexander.

Owing to the Influenza epidemic we were unable to play any outside teams. This was a great pity. The 1st XI. promised to be quite up to standard.

The following, however, have been awarded their colours for 1918: Bull, T. G. Mathews, Heggie (W. G.), Bonar, McNeill, D. I., Greatwood, Lougheed, and T. M. Pelly.

We had some keen struggles in the School League, and the Hornets, captained by W. G. Heggie, are to be congratulated on winning the Mrs. Barnacle Cup.

Below is the League Standing:

	Won	Lost	Drawn	Pts.
Hornets	3	0	0	6
Butterflies	1	2	0	2
Wasps	1	2	0	2
Fireflies	1	2	0	2

HOCKEY CHARACTERS, 1st XI.

G. R. Heggie (Captain)—An excellent centre forward; has good command of the ball, and passes well. A good shot. Directs his team well.

Reid—One of best right wing forwards seen at the School. Excellent command of the ball, and centres with great judgment.

Pelly, T. M.—Left wing forward; has not sufficient control; centres well.

Mathews, T. G.—A good forward; passes and shoots well.

Heggie, W. G.—Is now a very good half; always on his man; a good tackle, and passes with excellent judgment.

McNeill, D. I.—Has won his place at half; an excellent tackle; passes well.

1st XI. HOCKEY, 1918

Bonar—Has developed into a very good half; a splendid worker, with good judgment.

Alexander, B. B.—A good full-back; tackles well; a little more power in his strokes would improve him.

Greatwood—Is a good full-back; lots of power in his strokes, and a hard worker. Must be more careful over "sticks."

Bull—Is a very good goalkeeper; excellent judgment and fearless.

Lougheed—A hard-working forward, and has good control; must keep in his place and remember that combination is far more effective than big individual efforts.

RUGBY FOOTBALL

Officers for 1918:

Captain 1st XV.....	G. R. Heggie
Vice-Captain 1st XV.....	T. M. Pelly
Hon. Secretary.....	W. G. Heggie
League Representative.....	B. B. Alexander
Colours' Committee:
Mr. Barnacle, G. R. Heggie and T. M. Pelly.

We feel that 1918 Rugby will be up to our former standard. We have several Old Colours, which helps considerably.

We hope to send in Teams in the Intermediate and Junior Leagues of the City.

The Intermediate League will consist of the V.I.A.A., the Naval College, and ourselves. The age limit is 18½ years.

The age limit of the Junior League is 15 years. We do not know how many teams will enter.

The Spanish "Flu" is preventing our playing, but we are getting lots of practice and the team promises well. We shall see!

1st XV. vs. Foundation Co.

This match was played on our ground on Saturday, November 23rd. It was very windy, and good "threequarter" play was out of the question.

It was a hard game and very even. The fact that the forwards were able to hold their own against a 1st League team augurs well for the Intermediate League fixtures. At half-time the score was 3 to 0 in our favour.

After the interval, the Foundation Co., playing with the wind, had the ball in our quarters, as we did in the first half. They scored and converted, thus winning by 2 points.

Result: Foundation Co., 5 points; School, 3 points.

The School vs. The Naval College

This match, the first of the Intermediate League fixtures for us, was played on our ground on Saturday, November 30th.

The Naval College had beaten the V.I.A.A. twice, and consequently came with a good reputation.

Heggie i won the toss and selected to play with the wind.

After the first scrum, it was evident that it would be a great struggle, for they seemed about even.

Both sides played their very hardest. Just before half-time Bonar got away and attempted to kick over the full-back's head; the ball went over the line, and Heggie i following up hard, managed to score. The kick at goal failed. Result at half-time: 3 to 0 in our favour.

It was felt that our XV. would have their work cut out to keep the lead, now that the "Boys in Blue" were playing with the wind.

Our fellows showed that they realized this, and played harder than ever.

They got the ball out better, and some good bits of combination among the threequarters took place.

The try that Mathews ii scored was the result of a pretty piece of work. Smith i unfortunately handled the ball, and the kick at goal was futile. After this, Naval College took the ball into our "25" and looked like scoring, but their threequarters could not get going and our defence was sound.

Then we had the advantage, and whilst in their territory Greatwood got the ball and with a magnificent run fought his way over and placed the ball between the posts. The kick at goal was successful.

Before time was called another try was added, but no goal resulted.

The final results was: School, 14 points; Naval College, 0.

Comments

All the forwards did good, hard work, in fact it would be hard to single out the "stars"—they were all good.

Heggie i at threequarters made excellent openings, and looked like scoring more than once.

Heggie ii and McNeill i worked like "niggers" at half.

Loughheed at full-back did excellently. He fielded well and got the ball into touch in great style.

Pentelow at full-back was a tower of strength to the Naval College.

Altogether it was one of the hardest, cleanest, nicest games we have seen for a long time.

Mr. Spalding kindly refereed.

INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL

BY C. S.

Heggie iii was elected Captain, and Albert Vice-Captain. The games have been quite good most of the Term.

THE MAIN FAULTS ARE

1. Collaring round the neck. This never stops a man. Round the hips is the proper place.

2. Refusing to pass. Every three-quarter must learn to pass just before he is tackled. A "half" who hangs on to the ball and tries to fight his way through may be plucky but is useless to his side. A "half's" job is to open up the game by passing.

3. Playing Soccer. This must not be indulged in on the Rugby field. A flying hack lands the ball into the other team's hands nine times out of ten.

4. The unpardonable sin. Arguing with the Referee.

WITH THE SCOUTS

The Scouts this Term number fifty-three.

Among the newcomers, we are glad to welcome Sulley, a King's Scout, and several First and Second Classes.

W. Heggie and T. G. Mathews have been appointed Assistant Scoutmasters, while Heggie iii, Wenman i, Bull, Price, McNeill and Mathews i are Patrol Leaders.

Owing to the Influenza epidemic, which fortunately has not touched the School, it seemed best to keep out-of-doors as much as possible.

The Scout Work has, therefore, been Patrol Scouting and Competitions on the rugged slopes of Mount Tolmie.

A Scout Patrol Cup is to be given for efficiency in the following: 1, General smartness; 2, Patrol average in second class work; 3, Patrol average in Scout exercises and games; 4, Tent pitching, etc.

The Competition will close in the Summer Term.

C. S.

G. R. HEGGIE,
Captain of 1st XV.

MATTERS MILITARY

The following promotions were made in the Company at the commencement of the Term:

To Captain and Officer Commanding—Lieut. T. M. Pelly.

To Lieutenants—Sergt. B. B. Alexander, Sergt. W. G. Heggie, Corpl. R. C. Burdick.

To Company Sergt.-Major—Corpl. T. G. Mathews.

To Sergeants—Corpl. Reid, Lce.-Corpl. Greatwood, Lce.-Corpl. Loughheed, Lce.-Corpl. McNeill.

To Corporals—Cadets Bonar, R. B. Mathews, Wenman, Bull.

The strength of the Company has reached seventy-one, and it is beginning to look like old times. Twenty-eight recruits joined this Term, and this made it necessary to start the whole Company in its course of work, with the first elements of drill. Rapid progress in all directions has been made, and the Corps is well on its way to completing the year's work previous to the annual inspection. Above all, the spirit and keenness in which all the orders are carried out is excellent.

The regular drill day is Tuesday, but owing to the fact that there has been no Gym, advantage has been taken to have extra drills on Monday. A Kit Inspection is held every Monday.

A few weeks after the beginning of the Term, Sergt. Mathewson, the Instructor, was forced to leave us. The Corps misses him very much, and looks forward to his return. So far, another Instructor has not been found, but the Company is carrying on, and when a new Instructor comes, he will not find it "lacking."

In order to keep up the keenness shown by the Corps, Mr. Barnacle has consented to give the best Platoon in the Company a half holiday, also the four best privates are to receive one stripe.

The Signalling Corps, under Lieut. G. R. Heggie, has done excellent work. A field telephone has been added to this branch, and it may be safely said that messages can be sent with great speed and accuracy. It is hoped that this important part of the Corps will keep up its good work. Sergt. Greatwood is especially commendable for his interest and work in constructing the field telephone.

T. M. PELLY,
The Officer Commanding

The Ambulance Corps has been working hard, getting ready to compete in the competition for the best Corps in the Province. Mrs. Barnacle has been very kind in helping them, and they ought to get a good place.

Sergt. McNeill is the new Orderly Room Sergeant. He has had a lot of work to do, fitting out the recruits, etc., but his books are in fine shape, and it looks as if he were the right man in the right place.

The Band, under Lieut. W. G. Heggie, has been struggling hard. It was necessary this Term to train an entire new lot of buglers and drummers. Practices are held regularly, and it is beginning to "feel its legs." If it continues its hard work, it is certain to live up to its previous reputation.

On Saturday, October 19th, the Corps went for a "route march" and "field day" to Mt. Douglas. Before starting, "rations" were distributed in generous quantities. After steady marching, the "objective" being reached, a halt was called, in which time the great appetities (which only long marching can give) were satisfied. After this, operations began. No. 1 Platoon was ordered to proceed to the summit of the mountain, and the remainder to await further orders. The O.C. took up his post where both No. 1 and the rest could be seen, and when No. 1 had reached the top, orders were sent, with the aid of the signallers, for the remainder to advance and take the top of the mountain. As there were no judges and as both sides claimed the victory, no more on this subject can be said. The signallers got in some very good work during the course of the day. We arrived back at School just in time for tea.

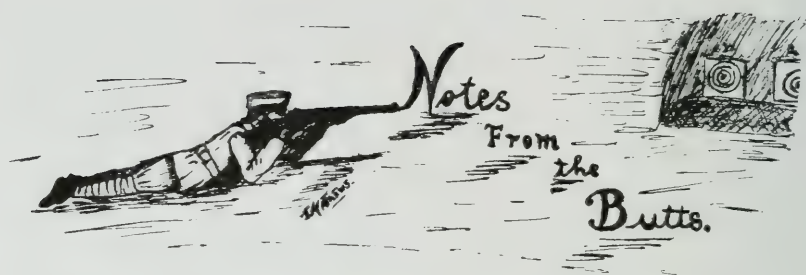

T. M. PELLY.

A GYM EIGHT ASPIRANT

CAPT. T. G. THOMAS,
Killed in Action

The results of the Imperial Challenge Shield Competition are not yet to hand.

The Miniature Shooting this term has been fairly satisfactory, especially when we consider the great number of boys who are beginners.

A marked improvement is noticed among the Seniors. The weekly buttons have been changing hands, which shows "there are others."

Among the Seniors the following have done well: Heggie ii, Helgesen, Pelly, Burdick, Lougheed, Mathews ii and Stuart.

Among the Intermediates the following deserve mention: Heggie iii, Murphy ii, Alexander and Price.

Among the Juniors, Wenman ii and Wright.

Wenman has succeeded in winning the button four times out of five, and three times in succession. He now keeps the Bronze Button and is promoted to the Intermediates.

The Shooting Averages of the Term will be published in our next issue.

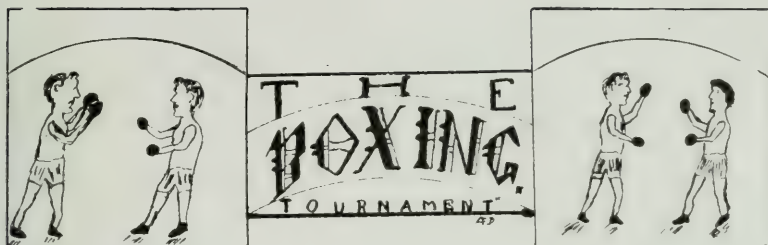

T. G. MATHEWS.

TENNIS

The usual Tournament was held at the close of the Summer Term. There were lots of good matches.

Austin captured the Championship, after a good fight with Kent i.

Austin and Shore won the Doubles.

The Boxing Class has been meeting regularly every Thursday night, under instruction from Mr. Davis.

Many of the boys in the class, previous to this Term, have not had the gloves on, but they are all learning rapidly, under the expert instruction which the class is so lucky to obtain. The quality of the boxing shown by some of the boys is exceptionally good. This class is, without doubt, one of the best in the history of the School.

During the course of the Term, Mr. Davis brought some boxers up from the city, to give our boys practice in boxing strangers.

The annual Boxing Tournament was held in the Gymnasium on Thursday evening, November 19th. Mr. Al. Davis refereed, and Mr. Boyd-Timms and Mr. Brady acted as judges.

The winner of each class receives a medal.

The results of the tournament are:

Class "A."—Lee vs. Pelly for the Championship of the School. It was unfortunate that Helgesen was absent. However, Lee, who is younger and lighter than Pelly, gave a plucky exhibition. However, he was outclassed by Pelly, who, in Mr. Davis's opinion, is one of the best boxers the School has had for some years, and undoubtedly the best boy of his age in the city.

We congratulate Pelly on winning the Championship for 1918.

Class "B."—The first bout in this class was between Dawson and Fife. Both boys showed good style. Dawson made use of some good footwork and dodging, and was on the offensive most of the time. Fife did some good blocking, missed few opportunities to land blows, and always came up smiling after receiving a blow. The decision went to Dawson.

The second bout in this class was between London and Alexander i. This proved a fast contest. Alexander had a good guard and missed few openings, while on the other hand, he was a little too apt to clinch. London was quick with his hitting, but danced around a little too much. The judges awarded the decision to Alexander.

It was now between the two winners for the championship of this class, and a very hard fought and evenly contested match resulted. In fact, it was not till after an extra round that Alexander was proclaimed the victor.

Class "C."—Murphy i vs. Bonar. This was one of the best bouts of the Tournament. Both boys were evenly matched, and showed much science. Bonar's hitting was much quicker and surer than his opponent's. Murphy's good point was his persistent straight "left." Bonar was given the decision.

Class "D."—Miller vs. Alexander ii. The style shown by Alexander was excellent. He used both his arms, much to his advantage. Miller kept rushing him, but Alexander stood fast. Miller's fault is his hitting is not sure. After an extra round, Alexander ii was given the decision.

It was now between Alexander ii and Albert (who had drawn a bye), but Alexander was so tired that he did not feel disposed to box Albert. Thus Albert won by default.

It is hard on Albert that he did not get a chance to show he deserves it, because he is a good boxer and he naturally feels he did not really win it.

Class "E."—Silby first boxed and defeated Powell and then McDonald. The style by these boys was amazingly good for their size. Silby's length of arm gave him a great advantage. Powell was very quick in hitting, and his guard was good.

After the Tournament, Mr. Barnacle spoke a few words, thanking the men who helped and commending the boys who had just competed, and especially on the spirit in which the boys who lost had taken their punishment like true Britishers.

PRIZE PHOTOS. OF C. C. COMPETITION—By Loureiro

K.S.

CAMERA CLUB

The Camera Club held a general meeting on September 17th, Mr. Tolson in the chair.

The following Officers were elected:

Secretary-Treasurer: Heggie i.

Committee: King, Greatwood and Fife.

The Club shows a large increase in membership this Term, and much interest is being taken in a series of lectures given by Mr. Denton, for whose kindness the Club is very grateful. A good deal of the drudgery of the work has already been done, and before long we shall hope to see such "classy" work as "enlargements" and "interiors." It is within the range of possibility that ere long we may have a photo of, say, the Vth Form all at work!

Some good work is being done by the Juniors.

The Prizes for this Term have been awarded as follows:

Set of 3—1st Prize.....Laureiro

Set of 3—2nd Prize.....Greatwood

DRAMATIC CLUB

Its Formation

We have had a Glee Club, and we have presented annually a Christmas Play but, until this Term, no Dramatic Club.

One afternoon, after School, a number of enthusiasts assembled in the "Prep" room to consider the prospects of forming a Dramatic Club.

Mr. Ransom kindly took the chair, and after a discussion, the Dramatic Club was a fact, and the following Officers were elected:

President: The Headmaster.

Vice-President: J. A. Ransom, Esq.

Hon. Secretary: D. Loughheed.

Hon. Treasurer: B. B. Alexander.

Committee: T. M. Pelly, B. B. Alexander, W. G. Heggie, R. Heggie, J. Fife, S. H. Greatwood.

First Performance

We had not long to wait for results, for on Saturday, October 19th, the Club gave its first performance. The concert was a great success.

Mr. Ransom's contributions—"The Serial Story" and "Thought Reading"—were both excellent and were loudly applauded.

OFFICERS OF THE CADET CORPS, 1918-19

Ferguson made a capital "Medium."

T. G. Mathews' rich voice was heard to advantage in "The Sunshine of Your Smile." An encore was demanded.

Loureiro very ably recited "La Conscience," by Victor Hugo.

Heggie i and Greatwood sang "Smiles."

Heggie ii's recitation, "My Awful Experience with a Whistler," brought down the house.

The following also contributed: Kent i and Smith (piano and violin), T. M. Pelly, A. Bull and Fife, Greatwood and McNeill.

Second Performance, Saturday, November 2nd

A week later, before the School had recovered from its first shock, very effective notices appeared, announcing the appearance of Johnson & Co., Famous Nigger Minstrels.

On Saturday, November 2nd, the School attended, and enjoyed every minute of the Minstrel Show.

Heggie ii was excellent in the chair.

Mathews ii and Pelly, as "Bones" and "Tambo," were inimitable and indefatigable.

The other Niggers were: Grey, Smith ii, Loughheed, Fife, Alexander, McNeill i, Mathews i, and Heggie i; and the one Negress was A. Bull, known as "Sweet Maggie."

Reid i and Reid ii kindly assisted in a much appreciated Pianoforte Duet.

The Junior Dramatic Club

Upon the suggestion of Mr. Ransom, there is now a second organization with officers complete, viz., The Junior Dramatic Club.

This Club, on November 16th, presented a really excellent show. Neither expense nor trouble was spared, and the original staging effects deserved great praise.

Gray opened with a Piano Solo.

Duncan and Loureiro put on a very humorous playlet, entitled "Making a Will."

Scott and Albert, as furniture movers, looked and acted their parts with great success.

"Things That Never Happen," written and arranged by McFarland, was very laughable and quite original.

Genge, as the Honolulu Maiden, was truly a work of art.

Mr. Ransom's reading, "The Way We Acted Julius Caesar," was a scream from beginning to end.

The following also assisted: McKay, Halse i, Miller, Fraser, Powell, Alexander ii, Gardner and Ferguson.

The Seniors are now busy preparing for the Christmas Play, and the rehearsals are in full swing, under the direction of Mr. Ransom.

Before closing these notes, I should like to thank Mr. Ransom, on behalf of the Club, for his advice and never-failing support.

B. B. ALEXANDER.

OLD BOYS' ASSOCIATION

This Association was founded in 1915 for the purpose of promoting intercourse and good-fellowship amongst our Old Boys, strengthening the ties between the past and the present and furthering the general interest of the School, by the preservation of a corporate College feeling.

All Old Boys and Masters are invited to become members.

The Annual Dinner is held after the Football Match on the second Saturday in February of each year.

A meeting of the Committee is held annually on the same day as the dinner, when the financial account of the year is presented to the Committee. Reports of the meetings appear in the School Magazine.

Every member is supplied with the "Black and Red," which appears once a term, and also with an invitation to the Athletic Sports, etc.

The Annual Subscription is $1, due on the 1st September, and payable in advance to the Rev. W. W. Bolton, M.A., Warden, who has kindly undertaken the Secretarial duties during the War.

OLD BOYS' COLUMN

Lieut. W. A. B. Garrard. We are sorry to hear that Garrard has been wounded. We hope by this time he is well on the road to recovery. He was with the famous 7th Batt., C.E.F. We heard from him in June, and sad to relate, he confessed to playing Baseball. Oh! Garrard!!

Lieut. A. G. Bolton. We are sorry to hear that "Gerard" has again been wounded, and this time very seriously. In fact, we had that terrible telegram, "dangerously ill." We all felt the greatest sympathy for our Warden. We are glad to report that "Gerard" is on the way to recovery. He was with the famous 7th Batt., C.E.F.

PTE. A. W. INNES,
Killed in Action

Mr. Dobson. We were shocked to hear that Mr. Dobson had died from pneumonia, following an attack of Spanish Influenza. We had just received a letter from him, in which he said he hoped to complete his training in the Flying Corps. He was most enthusiastic over his work, and was evidently making a success. His letter was most interesting, giving us lots of information of Old Boys. Mr. Dobson was always popular at the School, where he was Music Master for eight years.

Captain T. G. Thomas. We deeply regret to announce the death of Mr. Thomas. He was killed in action whilst engaged in the recent severe fighting in France. Mr. Thomas was highly successful as Musketry Instructor at Shorncliffe. He married whilst there. Several O.B.'s have written, saying they had been to see Mr. and Mrs. Thomas. However, he was determined to get to the Front. He gave up his rank and went through some fierce engagements. In a letter to us he described the terrible Paschendaele battle. We shall always remember the good that Mr. Thomas did at the School. His work in the Shooting Range was largely responsible for the School's great efficiency and success in the Dominion Shooting Competition. All the School grieves.

Lieut. G. Fyson. We deeply regret to announce the death of Mr. Fyson. He was killed by a bomb in the enemy's wire entanglements whilst on patrol work in Salonika. He was previously wounded in France. Mr. Fyson did not stay with us long; he returned to his old love—Loretto.

Pte. A. W. Innes. We deeply regret to announce the death of "Boy." He was killed in action during the recent severe fighting in which the Canadians have distinguished themselves. Innes had previously been wounded, and had just recovered and returned. It is indeed hard lines to have gone through so much fighting and to have succumbed right at the end, when we expect all our dear O.B.'s to come back to us. Innes was a very popular boy, and all O.B.'s will join us in sympathy with Mr. and Mrs. Innes and the family.

Major Rod. Bell-Irving, M.C. We deeply regret to announce the death of Roderick Bell-Irving. He was killed in action during the recent severe fighting in France. He was with the famous 16th Batt. It is such brave fellows as "Rod." that have helped to make the name of this Battalion famous. Roderick was only with us a short time, but we are proud to have him on our Honour Roll. We sympathize sincerely with his parents and family.

G. D. Flint. We regret to announce the death of "Gerald." He passed away at Prince Rupert at the age of 26 years.

2nd Lieut. H. A. B. Jackson, R.A.F. We deeply regret to announce the death of H. A. B. Jackson, who met his death whilst serving with the R.A.F. We remember his great keenness and enthusiasm when he joined at the age of seventeen. He was a bright fellow, and showed promise of a fine career. All O.B.'s will join us in sympathy with his parents.

2nd Lieut. Dyne Harrison, R.A.F. We deeply regret to announce the death of "Dyne," who died of wounds received whilst flying on the Western Front. He left with "Tobin's Tigers." After leaving School he entered the Canadian Bank of Commerce. We all remember "Dyne" as a good bowler and a fine "half-back." All O.B.'s will join us in sympathy with his parents.

E. Frampton. We were pleased to hear from "Eric." We are glad to know he is well and training for the Corps' Sports.

E. R. G. T. Richardson. Richardson paid the School a visit recently. He is training at the Willows with the Siberian Contingent. George is with the Foresters.

Capt. J. D. de Pencier, R.A. We were pleased to receive a letter from "John." We congratulate him on his rapid promotion and good work. We hope he may soon visit the Old School and show us that he has not forgotten how to play "half."

Sig. W. J. Peers. We were glad to receive a letter from W. J. He gave us news of Middy Creery and Middy Musgrave, who are in the North Sea in the same squadron as Peers, the eldest, who is now a Sub-Lieut. on H.M. Destroyer "Linnet." We are glad we are represented in that Grand Fleet.

Cadet A. J. Helmcken. We had an interesting letter from "Ainslie," who is training in the R.A.F., Toronto. The Cadets seem to be kept busy at Long Branch.

Lieut. Paty van Valkenburg. "Paty" was at the Officers' Training Depot, Honolulu, when he last wrote us. We hear he has now gone over to France. He tells us that he met Des Stanley, who had just returned wounded. Mrs. Barnacle was pleased with "Paty's" photo, which now adorns the walls of the Dining Room along with other good fellows.

Douglas Pickard. We received a very interesting letter from Douglas. We are glad that he is more than holding his own at Oundle. We expect him to do well. [Ed.]

Lieut. K. A. Creery. "Ken" paid us a visit recently. We were delighted to see him back home again. He is certainly having a bad time recovering. However, we trust he will be himself in the course of time.

G. G. King. We congratulate "Graeme" on winning the Silver Bugle at the Royal Military College. This signifies the Sports' Championship. He also won the Ryerson Cup for the 100 Yards. His times were excellent: 440 Yds. in 53 4-5"; 220 Yds. in 24"; 100 Yds. in 10 2-5". It will be remembered that he captured first place in these events at our Sports in June, and that he narrowly missed winning the Championship.

Major Duncan Bell-Irving. We hear that "Duncan" is on his way home on leave. He was recently wounded whilst fighting with the R.A.F. in Western France. We are very proud of "Duncan." He has done splendidly. We hope we may see him soon at the School.

2nd Lieut. Basil Jackson, R.A.F. We were pleased to receive an interesting letter from "Basil." He is stationed at Montrose, Scotland. He hopes to be able to bring down a Hun machine before returning.

Lieut. P. van Valkenburg. We have just received "Paty's" picture for the Gallery.

Lieut. E. Henderson. We are sorry to hear that "Eric" has been wounded. We hope that it is not serious, and that he will soon be well again.

Lieut. T. S. Byrn and G. S. Lennie paid us a visit. We are glad that Byrn is almost recovered from his serious accident. We understand that Lennie is studying law in his father's office.

Cadets "Barry" Atkins and "Douglas" Lennie recently paid the School a visit. They are both taking the Officers' Course at Work Point Barracks, and hope soon to be ready for active service.

B. B. Pelly. We understand that "Berenger" has joined the Officers' Training Corps at the University of Washington. We are confident he will make a great success. We shall not forget his good work as O.C. at the School in 1918.

THE PREFECTS

J. Browning. We received a visit from Browning, who told us he was endeavouring to enter the Officers' Training Corps at the University of Washington. He has been in business in Seattle and is doing very well.

C. A. Watson. We have received a letter from "Charlie," who is at present taking the Medicine Course at McGill. We expect him to do well.

Gnr. T. L. Young. We were pleased to receive Young's "picture" for the Gallery, and to know that he is still quite well.

Sergt. N. L. Caldwell, M.M. We are sorry that "Norman" has again been wounded. We hope it is not serious, and that we shall soon have him back in Victoria. He has been out since the beginning, and has done splendidly, being awarded the M.M. for conspicuous bravery in a raid on German trenches.

Pte. J. P. Schofield. We are sorry that "Jim" has again been wounded. We do hope the results will not be permanent. He was wounded in the thigh whilst engaged in the recent severe fighting in France.

Lieut. H. B. Hudson, M.C. We were delighted to read that "Harold" Hudson has again been distinguishing himself. He is mentioned as follows: "For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in destroying four enemy aeroplanes and shooting down two enemy kite balloons in flames."

Capt. W. Stone. We were very sorry to hear that Stone had been wounded. He was in hospital suffering from gunshot wounds in the chest. We are glad that he is making a good recovery. He was with the 15th Royal Warwicks.

J. S. H. Matson. We would like to congratulate "Jack" on his excellent performance in the famous Eton and Harrow match. He took four wickets for 28, made 12 runs in each innings, and made a sensational catch, which gave Harrow the much-coveted victory.

B. and J. Wilson have just returned from Loretto, where they have both done well; the former winning his place on the 1st XV., and the latter on the 1st XI.

Lieut. Colin C. Ferrie. We are sorry to hear that "Colin" Ferrie has been wounded. We hope he will soon recover. He went overseas with the University Contingent. He was serving with the 72nd Batt. when wounded.

2nd Lieut. R. L. Challoner, R.E. We are sorry to hear that Challoner has been wounded whilst serving with the 76th Field Co., Royal Engineers. We have since heard that his wounds were slight, and that he was on the way to recovery.

Cadet C. Errington, R.M.C. We were glad to receive "Charlie's" picture for the Gallery.

Capt. R. Whittome, A.S.C. We were most pleased to hear that "Bobby" Whittome has been promoted to Captain for his good work in France. He has been in France for three years. He is second in command of the largest Canadian Transport Division in France.

Lieut. R. S. Greig, R.A.F. We were sorry to hear that Greig had been wounded whilst serving in France. He was shot in the leg whilst flying over the enemy's lines. He writes cheerily and hopes soon to be back again.

Pte. A. E. Williams. We are sorry that "Alan" has been wounded. We hope it is not serious, and that he will soon be well.

TALES FROM FRANCE

The Forest of Misery

A young man found himself, on a cold winter's evening, at the entrance of a forest, whose very appearance was sufficient to inspire fear.

Tall trees with yellow bark and branches stripped of their leaves, narrow winding paths, full of stones, which branched off and met again like the threads of an inextricable network, brambles—that was all to be met with there.

The young man walked quickly; evidently some anxiety was darkening his brow and absorbing all his thoughts, for he did not notice that the farther he proceeded, the closer the trees became and the paths were not so frequent. And he went on and on.

But soon, despairing of being able to get out of the labyrinth in which he had penetrated, he fell down exhausted on the ground.

He remained there for a long time, for the cold had chilled his numbed limbs; the fatigue of a long walk had exhausted his strength and he was dying of hunger.

Suddenly, the pain he felt made him ejaculate a cry, whose echo resounded afar off.

He raised his head; three men were standing in front of him, without his having seen them or heard them come.

He started up; the eyes of the three men were firmly fixed on his.

One of them was wearing a flowing robe of gold cloth, taken in at the waist by a belt, the diamond clasp of which shone with a phosphorescent brightness; at his side hung a sword.

The second wore a black robe and a red belt. The third had a tunic of blue linen and a leather belt; he was holding in his hand an axe, on which he was leaning.

"What are you doing there?" the three companions cried in chorus.

"I am dying," replied the young man; "have pity on me!"

"What do you want?" asked the strangers.

"To get out of this cursed forest as quickly as possible."

"Choose, then, which of us three will have to accompany you, for you only need a guide, and it is for you to appoint him."

The young man studied each of the three men who were awaiting the result of the examination; and he noticed the one who was wearing the robe of gold cloth, for the clasp flashed so that it lit up the place.

"It is you I choose," he said to him.

Then a strange smile passed over the cold lips of the stranger, and he held out his hand to the young man, whilst his two companions disappeared like a vision.

Dumb with terror, the young man took the hand of his guide and they set out.

Oh! that was a rapid journey; the trees flew past them and the noise of their footsteps resounded without interruption, but at the end of an hour they were still in the forest.

"Oh! how tired I am!" murmured the young man, stopping in the middle of a cross-road, formed by the junction of several roads.

"It is a long way yet, and our legs are too tired to take us to the end; but there will pass here shortly a traveller on horseback. Take this sword; as soon as he is near you, plunge it in his heart and you will get possession of his horse, on which we will ride."

"Horror! but pray who are you that advise me thus?"

"I am Crime!" replied the stranger.

"Away with you!" said the young man, falling face downwards on the ground.

An infernal laughter was heard, and the young man was alone.

He got up again: the two other companions were before him.

"What are you doing there?" they asked him.

"What do you want?" resumed the two men.

"To get out of this cursed forest as quickly as possible."

"Choose, then, which of us two will have to accompany you, for you only need a guide and it is for you to appoint him."

And the young man looked at the two men and noticed the one who was wearing the black robe and the red belt.

"It is you I choose!" he said to him.

Then, without saying a word, the stranger smiled and held out his hand to the young man, whilst his companion disappeared like a vision.

Dumb with terror, the young man took the hand of his guide and they set off.

They walked for an hour and arrived on the edge of an abyss, from which burst forth cries and sobs.

"Oh! how tired I am!" murmured the young man, stopping.

"It is a long way yet, and our legs are too tired to take us to the end; besides, I have brought you here to offer you the only means of getting out of this forest. At the bottom of this abyss is death—that delivers one from all troubles."

"Horror! but who, pray, are you that advise me thus?"

"I am Despair!" replied the stranger.

"Away with you!" said the young man, falling face downwards on the ground.

An infernal burst of laughter was heard, and the young man was alone.

He got up again; the third companion was before him. Recalling the names of the two others, he tried to flee, but the stranger stopped him.

"Come with me; it is a long way yet, but God comes to the assistance of the sufferer."

The young man looked at him, and, in his turn, held out his hand.

But the stranger contented himself with walking step by step in front of him. Then, with the help of his axe, he made a new road, cutting down the trees that prevented them from advancing. Then he said to the young man:

"Carry one of these trees on your shoulders."

And the young man obeyed; although his fatigue was great, he hardly felt the weight of the burden he was carrying.

Striking continually with his axe, the stranger arrived, followed by the young man, at the border of the wood; before them stretched a vast plain, in the middle of which was a castle.

Then the stranger said to the young man: "The forest you have gone through is the Forest of Misery. Remember it, and now put down your burden."

The young man threw the tree on the ground; but as it fell it changed into a long roll of gold coins.

"Who, pray, are you that have advised me so well?" asked the young man, at the height of astonishment.

"I am Work!" replied the guide.

H. DE GENOUILLAC.

THAT SATURDAY NIGHT

It was Saturday, and naturally it was raining and blowing. It would not have been so bad if we had not been in quarantine and therefore, not allowed to go into town on account of the "Flu."

Somehow or other the day drew to a close. The good old "Victor" in the Prefects' Room had done a good day's work; the occupants, between mouthfuls of chocolate and toast, were bemoaning the rotten trick the "weather man" had played them, at the same time vowing vengeance on the unfortunate who had left the "Rugby" ball out to tempt the weather.

Suddenly, Mr. Barnacle appeared, looking perplexed and annoyed.

He asked one of the Prefects to see if the lights would turn on. He tried and tried again, but no glimmer of light would come.

S.O.S. calls were sent to the Electric Co., who promised to have the lights on as soon as possible. Well, we all know that that means sometime in the next week or so.

This episode added to our ill-humour. Not that we minded going to bed and eating by candle-light for once. It was a novelty. The complaint was, that nothing would induce the lights to go off on a week day, when there was "prep" to be done. Oh! dear no; it must choose a Saturday.

By this time it was getting quite dark, and we were all crowding round the windows to get a last glimpse of the book we were reading, when the welcome news came that the Prefects in the other house had provided themselves with candles left over from the Nigger Show. This caused a stampede into the other house, and there was much ado to keep the candles burning.

Mr. Barnacle was by this time placing candles in the rooms, so that we would not bark our shins on the chairs and tables. We appropriated one of the candles and returned to our own Room, where we rigged it up in front of a mirror (which, by the way, was not all that it was "cracked" up to be), and soon we were enjoying the glaring light of one candle power.

As per usual, the Boys lined up in the corridor, and as the Prefect on duty could not see who was making the row, the guilty one remained unpunished. "Nuff" said on that subject.

There was quite a breeze blowing through the dining room door, however, as Mr. Bolton nursed the candles which adorned the tables.

The Boys filed into their places without mishap. The little boys, such as Albert and Lee, quite enjoyed the novelty of the occasion and openly showed their joy. Thus we took our seats amid a ghastly silence, blending with the ghastly appearance of the room, until Mr. Barnacle sat down, and then the pent-up words broke loose; comments such as, "Tea by candle-light," "How are we going to find our mouths?" until a gentle, "Not so much noise, Boys," from the Head, restored rational conversation. However, the conversation did not trouble us very much, as was evident by the rapid way in which the food disappeared and found its way to our famished mouths.

At last the tea came to an end, much to the relief of those who were watching the flickering candles with a fatherly eye, and we filed out, much in the same way, to our respective rooms, and put the "Victor" into harness again. Soon it became evident that the "Powers that be" were not going to allow us to sit up and waste good candle-power.

The bell rang to the accompaniment of the "Whistle"; each Prefect was presented with one candle stuck firmly in a tumbler, with due instructions to place it in his Dormitory, and not allow it to come in contact with any bed clothes, curtains or hair.

Then the Boys trooped up to bed, and had the novelty of washing, bathing (or swimming, as some call it), and undressing in yellow candle light.

This sort of thing is all very nice, but it fell very hard on Mr. Barnacle, who undertook the "Duty," and who, while in one "Dormy," had fearful visions of a candle overturning in another.

Relief came when each candle was carefully put out and removed, so that no night-hawk could avail himself of a light.

The School was uncommonly quiet that night, so remarked one of the Staff.

Next morning, some of the members of the two Senior Dormitories were found paying a visit to the Junior House and engaged in mortal combat.

Needless to say, long was the line of culprits, who afterwards mournfully stated that they had received "six" on each hand.

This is a fitting place to come to an end of the sad Cat-tail of that never-to-be-forgotten Saturday night.

JOHN MORGAN'S TEST

It was about the 22nd of August, 1896, when John Morgan was about to leave his native town for a Medical College in the State of Denver. He had more or less been a "homely" boy, and when he was a child of six had been chased by an ape which had escaped from its cage in the park. This incident had given John a timid disposition with regard to animals of this species. He had worked enthusiastically and had passed his entrance examinations for the State Medical College of Denver. His parents and numerous relatives came to the station to say farewell to the youth on his first trip from home. His journey lasted two days, and on arriving at his destination, he was driven to the College, which was located some six or seven miles. When he reached the University he was at once taken to Dr. Black, the Professor of Surgery, under whose care he was immediately placed. The Professor was a tall man and extremely thin; his features were harsh and his complexion ruddy. John was then recorded on the school register and taken to his future dormitory. During the following week his work went very smoothly, and he had no trouble whatever with his fellow-students, who numbered about 250. The tenth day from the time of his arrival was marked with great excitement by the students, as the body of a huge ape, which had recently died in the city zoological gardens, had been purchased by Dr. Black for experimental purposes. The next day John's class attended a lecture, and from there proceeded to the dissecting room, where the ape lay outstretched on the operating table. All the students viewed this spectacle with intense excitement, but it was noticed by a few that John was not very keen and seemed more inclined to leave than to watch any experiments. A few excited boys, however, pushed him to the front, and as he drew near the table he fainted. The boys, who had been puzzled for some time as to what his initiation might be, now obtained an idea. John soon recovered, and was helped to his dormitory. At ten o'clock, having finished the preparation of their work, the boys proceeded to their respective dormitories. Soon everything was quiet except in the dormitory of which John was one of the occupants. Here everyone seemed to be expecting something out of the ordinary, except John, who was sleeping peacefully. At the time when the moon shone full upon his bed, he was awakened by a well-directed slipper thrown from the other end of the room. He sat up in bed and looking straight before him, he saw a terrifying spectacle—an ape with shining eyes looking directly at him, its brawny arms outstretched, and its mouth open. John collapsed, and when he came to his senses he found himself in the school hospital with a nurse and Dr. Black attending him. When he had recovered his strength, they explained to him that the figure of the ape had been tied to his bed by some of the boys, who had thought that this was a splendid way of giving him his initiation.

THE GOLDEN RULE

It has become a golden rule,
That boys at University School
Should wear a tie of black and red
On week-end days, the Head has said.

This rule has, therefore, come to pass
Because some boys showed too much "flash";
The ties of bright design and hue
Surely would have astonished you.

The result of this you all have seen,
'Tis best to show not too much sheen,
But wear a tie of modest colour:
You'll find this out some time or other.
